General Festival Information

Festival Hours

The Opening Ceremony for the Festival takes place at the New Hampshire Town Hall Tent at 11 a.m., Wednesday, June 23. Thereafter, Festival hours are 11 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. daily, with evening events to 9 p.m. except July 4.

Festival Sales

Traditional New Hampshire, South African, and Romanian food is sold. See the site map on the back cover for locations.

A variety of crafts, books, and Smithsonian Folkways recordings related to the 1999 Festival are sold in the Festival Marketplace on the Mall-side lawn of the National Museum of American History.

Press

Visiting members of the press should register at the Press Tent on the Mall near Madison Drive and 12th Street.

First Aid

A first aid station is located near the Administration area on the Mall at Madison Drive and 12th Street.

Restrooms & Telephones

There are outdoor facilities for the public and visitors with disabilities located near all of the program areas on the Mall. Additional restroom facilities are available in each of the museum buildings during visiting hours.

Public telephones are available on the site, opposite the National Museums of American History and Natural History, and inside the museums.

Lost & Found/ Lost Children & Parents

Lost items may be turned in or retrieved at the Volunteer

Tent near the Administration area at 12th Street near Madison Drive. Lost family members may be claimed at the Volunteer Tent also.

Metro Stations

Metro trains will be running every day of the Festival. The Festival site is easily accessible from the Smithsonian and Federal Triangle stations on the Blue and Orange Lines.

Services for Visitors with Disabilities

To make the Festival more accessible to visitors who are deaf or hard of hearing, audio loops are installed in the main music tent in each program area. Sign-language interpreters are on site every day of the Festival. Check the printed schedule and signs for interpreted programs. Special requests for interpreters should be made at the Volunteer Tent. Service animals are welcome. Oral interpreters are available for individuals if a request is made three full days in advance. Call (202) 357-1729 (TTY) or (202) 786-9132 (voice).

Large-print copies of the daily schedule and audio-cassette versions of the program book are available at Festival information kiosks and the Volunteer Tent.

A limited number of wheelchairs are available at the Volunteer Tent. Volunteers are on call to assist wheelchair users and to guide visitors with visual impairments. There are a few designated parking spaces for visitors with disabilities along both Mall drives. These spaces have three-hour time restrictions.

Fifth Annual Ralph Rinzler Memorial Concert

Contributors: The Recording Industries Music Performance Trust Funds;
 Ruth Mott Foundation

Special Thanks: Emily Botein

Evening Programs Calendar

Wednesday, June 23

SOUTH AFRICAN DANCE PARTY AT THE ROMANIAN MUSIC & DANCE HALL, 5:30–7:00 P.M. Dance to the rhythm of bongo drums, marimba, and mbiras, as the Phambili Marimba Band from Cape Town performs traditional music and dance.

ROMANIAN CONCERT AT THE ROMANIAN MUSIC & DANCE HALL, 7:00–9:00 P.M. Featuring urban, folk, and Gypsy music, this concert presents a variety of Romanian musical genres.

Thursday, June 24

RALPH RINZLER MEMORIAL CONCERT: “TRADITIONAL MUSIC FOR THE WEDDING” AT THE NEW HAMPSHIRE TOWN HALL MUSIC & DANCE STAGE (IN CASE OF RAIN, BAIRD AUDITORIUM, NATIONAL MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY), 5:30–9:00 P.M. This year’s fifth annual Ralph Rinzler Memorial Concert, honoring the achievements of the long-time Festival director, will feature traditional wedding music from the Balkan countries of Bulgaria and the Republic of Macedonia and the Eastern Caucasus of the former Soviet Union. The Yuri Yunakov Ensemble expands upon traditional Balkan village melodies to bring an eclectic mix of jazz, rock, Turkish, and Indian music to listeners. They are joined by the New York-based Ensemble Tereza, who skillfully fuse their traditional south Caucasian instruments with modern ones. Both groups illustrate the popular appeal that “wedding music” has in diaspora communities. This concert is supported by The Recording Industries Music Performance Trust Funds and the Ruth Mott Foundation.

Friday, June 25

NEW HAMPSHIRE DANCE PARTY AT THE SOUTH AFRICAN LUVHANDENI (“VIRTUOSO”) STAGE, 5:30–7:00 P.M., with klezmer music.

SOUTH AFRICAN CONCERT AT THE SOUTH AFRICAN LUVHANDENI (“VIRTUOSO”) STAGE, 7:00–9:00 P.M. Presented in Tswana, Zulu, Xhosa, and Sotho languages, the Teemayo Traditional Dance Group addresses traditional and contemporary issues in theatrical form.

Saturday, June 26

ROMANIAN-AMERICAN NIGHT AT THE ROMANIAN MUSIC & DANCE HALL, 5:00–9:00 P.M. Join in as Romanian Americans gather on the National Mall to celebrate their heritage and traditions. Romanian Americans and the general public are invited to participate in this festive evening, which features performances by Romanian musicians and dancers. Orient Express, an urban ethno-pop jazz fusion band, also performs.

Sunday, June 27

OLD HOME DAY IN THE NEW HAMPSHIRE PROGRAM AREA; DANCE PARTY BEGINS AT 5:30 P.M. Celebrate that “down-home feeling,” as we provide an all-day event filled with traditional community activities from New Hampshire. Included will be the Temple Community Marching Band, a fireman’s muster, old-fashioned children’s games, and cooking demonstrations. Following these events will be an evening contra and square dance party.

Wednesday, June 30

NEW HAMPSHIRE DANCE PARTY AT THE SOUTH AFRICAN LUVHANDENI (“VIRTUOSO”) STAGE, 5:30–7:00 P.M. Contra, square, and Irish celi dancing.

STELLENBOSCH LIBERTAS CHOIR AT THE SOUTH AFRICAN LUVHANDENI (“VIRTUOSO”) STAGE, 7:00–9:00 P.M. In the spirit of the Rainbow Nation, South Africa’s multiracial Libertas Choir makes a special appearance at the Folklife Festival.

Thursday, July 1

SOUTH AFRICAN DANCE PARTY AT THE ROMANIAN MUSIC & DANCE HALL, 5:30–7:00 P.M. Marimba and mbira music by the Phambili Marimba Band.

FIDDLE COMBINATION WITH FIDDLERS FROM NEW HAMPSHIRE AND ROMANIA AT THE ROMANIAN MUSIC & DANCE HALL, 7:00–9:00 P.M. Fiddlers from New Hampshire and Romania come together to demonstrate the shared customs that exist amid the diversity of this year’s Festival.

Friday, July 2

CONJUNTO DANCE PARTY AT THE SOUTH AFRICAN LUVHANDENI (“VIRTUOSO”) STAGE (IN CASE OF RAIN, BAIRD AUDITORIUM, NATIONAL MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY), 5:30–9:00 P.M. In collaboration with the National Museum of American History’s Encuentros program, this dance party brings Mexican-American dance music to a wider audience from its South Texas home, where it is played at weddings, female coming-of-age ceremonies, graduation dances, and funerals. The dance party features Los Hermanos Layton and Gilberto Pérez y Sus Compadres. It also marks the release of the new Smithsonian Folkways recording, Taquachito Nights: Conjunto Music from South Texas, a CD formed out of a partnership between the Smithsonian and the Narciso Martínez Cultural Arts Center.

Saturday, July 3

FRANCO-AMERICAN DAY IN THE NEW HAMPSHIRE PROGRAM AREA, 5:30–9:00 P.M. To feature this community’s cultural presence in New Hampshire, we are hosting a “Franco-American Day” to recognize the heritage and traditions of New Hampshire’s residents who, beginning in the 1800s, immigrated from Québec. A Franco soirée and dance party are planned.

Sunday, July 4

NEW HAMPSHIRE DANCE PARTY AT THE NEW HAMPSHIRE TOWN HALL MUSIC & DANCE STAGE, 5:30–7 P.M. Contra and square dancing.
